Q: adding a class on the same line in css I am making a website for my community theatre company and I am having trouble adding a class on the same line in my CSS. I need to put a blue border under the heading in the center. I have the normal blue border set up as well as white text on the header. But I need to put the blue border under the header on the same line. Below are the code examples I am using. #header{ background-color: #7a7ff0; font-family:Arial, Helvetica, sans-serif;
