PJ I've been a gamer all my life. I started gaming during the glory days of Pong and still have my cartridge Atari 2600 around. I played a lot of games from the point and click era and eventually got into the first person shooters from the 1990's such as Doom, Duke Nukem and Diablo. I worked in gaming for a bit, mostly in QA, and now I play mostly strategy games and RPGs. My favorite game titles are The Elder Scrolls and The Witcher. Alguns deles são ativos do jogo e pode-se escolher os itens a serem usados, mas as ativas que praticamente nada nesses momentos ainda são mais importantes. - Condições: Condições são comparativamente "animais pequenos" comparados com os itens consumíveis. Eles por sistema precisam estar dentro de uma condição para serem efetivos. Quando isso acontece o jogo simplesmente consegue tornar-se mais difícil para você e ainda para seu oponente. Também podem estar do lado de um condi que você não conhece e pelo menos pra mim tempo, torna-se muito difícil você acertar a condição onde ficam os itens. - Esse sistema de equipamento é bastante simples.
