Finally, there is Fibbage, which is a parody of Scrabble. Your mission is to fill the board, and you can play against the computer or with your family members. You can play with a group or on your own. You'll need to answer questions like the ones you did in Jackbox Party Pack, or you can develop your own. Winners get to play Liar, Liar, wherein you and your family must decide whether or not your partner has told the truth. But again, there will be a quiz on each round, where your family can have a bet on your honesty. The loser can be penalized. You can start by playing against the computer. It will build your confidence before playing against other players. You need to answer tricky questions throughout the game to complete different levels. If you can fool your friends successfully, you will earn more points and proceed faster. The excellent game mechanics, together with the stunning visual details and addictive gameplay, make Fibbage one of the most highly-rated alternatives for Jackbox Party Pack.
